SCORE 0-30: Angelic to the Nigh!

Here to collect your halo?? Well this little angel can do no wrong and whilst the rest of us are queuing with our oversized luggage at the pearly gates of heaven, you'll be given priority check in - no questions asked!

You are a shining example of human kindness and compassion. Recognise your excellence from time to time, rip that halo off and spread your wings!

SCORE 31-70: Keeping it Real

You're simply awesome and you have the potential to accomplish your dreams. Your realism and reliability will always serve you well in life but may also work against you. Try to be spontaneous and take a risk once in a while!

Loosen the reigns and give others around you a surprise by doing something out of character and a little outrageous!

SCORE 71-110: The Wild Intellect

Now you really are a mixture of characters! One day the hard working model employee and the next, the life and soul of the party. Your traits are so extreme, even you don't know what's coming next!

You are cheeky with a dash of wickedness thrown in, and like a chameleon you can adapt to your surroundings. This versatility gives you unlimited pathways in which your life might take, especially if you can tolerate certain individuals who are otherwise best ignored!

SCORE 111-150: Stir Crazy

You were born ready! Whilst others linger at the halfway mark their entire lives, never sure which road to take, you know exactly where you're headed and if you don't then you're happy just to wing it! Life will throw many challenges your way but you're ready to tackle them - if you can't do it then no-one can!

You are an action seeking, party animal, perhaps not the type to settle down young as you have too much to do. There's a big, wide world out there, ready for you to plunge into but remember never to sacrifice your future for the here and now. Life is a marathon not a sprint!
